PRIOR TO LONDON PRODUCTION

"GRIEF GOES OVER" is the second play from the pen of MERTON HODGE. His first, "THE WIND AND THE RAIN," produced in Manchester on MONDAY, OCTOBER 9th, 1933, is still being played at the Queen's Theatre, Shaftesbury Avenue, and is LONDON'S LONGEST RUN by over a year.

AURIOL LEE, who was responsible for the direction of the first piece, is again producer, and a very distinguished cast is headed by SYBIL THORNDIKE.

"GRIEF GOES OVER" is comedy in the MERTON HODGE vein and will be presented in London in the very near future.
