EFFINGHAM VILLAGE DAY

Notes of the Village Day Committee held on Monday 19 May 1997 at 8.00 pm at the Methodist Church Hall.

PRESENT:	Gill Walker	(In the Chair)
	Beryl Eisenegger	(Secretary)
	Mary Head	St Teresa's Prep
	Jessica Page
	Maddy Hewitt	(Our Lady of Sorrows RC Church)
	Jim Clarke	(Royal British Legion)
	Alan Murison	(Bookham & Horsley Rotary Club)
	James Nicholls
	Barbara Rombach	(Effingham Methodist Church)
	Ken Collins	(Red Cross, Brownies and Guides)

Apologies for absence were received from: Trevor Faris (Treasurer), Chris Boughey (Assistant Treasurer/Scouts), Clive Mott (KGV), Freda Holt (Over 60s), Valerie Chapman (WI), Marjorie Chalcraft (Villagers), Rosemary Gibbs, (Inner Wheel - Bookham & Horsley), Trevor Sokell (Effingham RFC), Gordon Osborne (KGV-Admin), Eddie Barnaville (Scouts), Alison Parsons (Friends of St Lawrence School), Rita Davis (Howard Court).

1. Notes of last meeting

ACTION

Alison Parsons had started putting up yellow A4 posters around the Village and James Nicholls volunteered to help her. Mary Head, Jim Clarke and Maddy Hewitt all needed posters so would contact AP. It was suggested a poster be put up on the fence at the top of Bookham High Street and in Bookham Library and A3 size posters to be double sided and put along Effingham Common Road.

AP/JN

Programmes

Clive Mott to deliver to: Browns Lane, Church Street,
Lower Road - along to Lower Road Nursery
Valerie Chapman to deliver to: Victory Cottages, Manor
Gardens, The Crossroads, Beech Close.

Programmes not available at meeting, will be handed out ASAP.

Art Group

Gill Walker reported that the picture frames were up in the KGV hall. Candy Tracy wanted to be sited in the Hall.

Fun Run

Gordon Osborne was unable to be present on 8 June and had organised Mr and Mrs Barnes to be in charge of the Fun Run, entry form was in the programme (to start at 3.30 pm). Seb Coe has been asked to attend but no reply yet.

Car Parking

James Nicholls indicated he would need 2 people at the top gate, allowing only authorised people in. Their cars could be parked behind stalls etc. He needed 6/8 people at gate by Scout HQ with money collection points at the far end of Scout HQ to ease the traffic flow. Area in front of Scout HQ to be roped off. He needed more volunteers, and a notice will be placed in the Parish Pulse with a plea for help.

GW

Tables

Chris Simmonds had agreed to collect, but would need assistance.

Master of Ceremonies

Mike Morris had agreed to assist Jonathan Broadhurst and relevant information would be given to them.

It was noted that there would be a hand held microphone near the arena for commentaries.

2. Raffle

Tickets were available and handed out to members present. Jessica Page would start collecting Raffle prizes but would hand over to Gill Walker nearer the date as she was going on holiday.

JP/GW

3. Profits

Gill Walker mentioned the Methodist Church was in need of ventilation at a cost of £500-600. James Nicholls wondered whether we ought to put money aside for the Millennium but this was not agreed.

4. Tea

Maddy Hewitt had spoken to Macdonalds at Epsom but had received no response. Mary Head offered orange juice and plastic cups from St. Teresa which was gratefully accepted. Jim Clarke offered small cakes.

5. BBQ

All in hand. Jim Clark mentioned that the Butchers had not received an order yet.

6. Gill Walker had arranged for the Painshill Fire Engine to be on show.

7. Amendments/additions to stalls and events on separate page.

8. Advertisements would be placed with the Leatherhead and Guildford Advertisers, and we would ask for a photographer to visit. We were going to ask for a mention on County Sound, Southern Counties et al.

BE

8. Treasurers would provide floats to be handed out on the day and they would be coming round to collect money at various times during the event. Final monies will have to be taken to the Treasurers please.

9. Events starts at 12.30 but stall holders would be welcome from 10.30 am to start setting up. Large plans of the area will be available near the KGV Hall with sawdust marking out the sites etc. Nothing will be placed on the cricket green nor at the bottom of the slope.

10. No date was set for another meeting, although Clive M, Trevor F, Gill W and Beryl E would meet to look at the siting plans on Wednesday 4 June.
